NSGEU Local 60A reaches tentative agreement with Pictou County Shared Services Authority

Pictou County – The Bargaining Committee of Local 60A reached a tentative agreement with the Pictou County Shared Services Authority Monday night.

“We are pleased to have reached a tentative agreement,” says Joan Jessome, President of the Nova Scotia Government & General Employees Union (NSGEU). “Members of Local 60A will be voting on the tentative agreement and if accepted, will be returning to work as soon as they can. They are very eager to get back to work.”

The 13 members of the local will be voting on the agreement Wednesday night.

Members of the bargaining unit include administrators, lab technicians, maintenance operators, planning techs and senior planners. These employees issue permits for the sub-division of land, issue building permits, do building inspections, and operate the waste treatment plant.

If ratified, this will be Local 60A’s first collective agreement.
